

Centerville

This town was noted on the county maps of 1877, 1886, 1901 as a mining camp. It was so named because it was half way between Helltown and Diamondville. The school district was organized in 1859, and annexed to Chico in 1964. It was an early site of a powerhouse purchased by PG&E.